

2017 Tribal Relations Training

“Partners in Building a Stronger Montana: the Benefits of Effective State-Tribal Relations”

December 13, 2017, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm
Montana Department of Transportation Auditorium
2701 Prospect Avenue, Helena

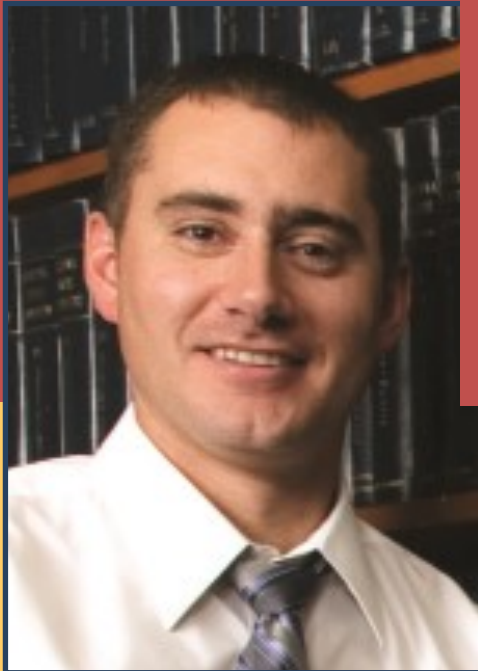

Photo courtesy of the Office of Public Instruction

Keynote: Ryan Rusche
Tribal Attorney
Confederated Salish
& Kootenai Tribes

“Tribal Sovereignty and the Shared Responsibility to Build a Better Tomorrow”

Guest Speaker: Sally Thompson

Anthropologist, Author, and Founder/Former Director of the University of Montana Regional Learning Project

“Willing To Learn: Reflections on Working in Indian Country”

Registration Fee $65

Limited seating ♦ Lunch on your own

To register, visit www.pdc.mt.gov or call (406) 444-3871